ROBBERY AND ASSAULT.

Alexander Deak Charged with Stealing a Fat Purse. Justice Goetting, in the Lee Avenue Polic

Court, Williamsburg, this morning held Alexander Deak, of Do North Fifth street, on a charge of robbery and assault. Mrs. Minute Mett conducts a butcher shop at 150 Wythe avenue, and yesterday afternoon she left her ten-year-old daughter Bertha in charge for a couple of hours.

Shortly atterwards the girl discovered that a pocketbook containing $80, had been left in the cash drawer, and she put it in her bosom for safe-keeping. A moment later, she says. Deak entered the place, and by threats forced the girl to give up the money. Deak was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Goetting this morning.

When arraigned to-day Ponton, through Lawver McClellan, asked for an adjournment until his brother, who is said to be Queen's Counsel in Canada, could be notified and come on hele.

Ponton said that his brother was a necessary witness in the case. Justice Voorhis adjourned hearing until next Thursday, Mean time, Ponton was to be field in $1,000 ball.

Mayor Brush came into court after the case had been disposed of, and said he wished to go bail for Ponton. His bend was accepted by Justice Voorhis, and Panton was allowed to return with him to Mount Vernon.

Mayor Brush said that the charge against Ponton was groundless, as
